Senator Jensen called the meeting to order and roll was taken. Minutes from the February 8, 2001 meeting were approved as written.

Chairman Jensen then introduced John Glenn of the Southern Iowa Development and Conservation Authority. He in turn introduced the other members of the Authority who were also present. Mr. Glenn then discussed the number of bridges structurally deficient and/or obsolete and the request for funds for 2002. There were a considerable amount of questions taken from the floor and Jim Cooper, another member of the Authority, discussed other avenues of funding which are being explored.

Chairman Jensen then introduced Arlyn Danker of the Hungry Canyons Alliance of Loess Hills. He introduced the other members of the Alliance who were present also. There was an overview of the project, progress report for the years 1992-2000, and the funding needed for the future. Again there were questions taken from the floor.

Pam Bonrud, Lewis & Clark Rural Water System, was then introduced by Chairman Jensen. She also introduced the other members who were present. Ms. Bonrud gave the history of the Lewis & Clark Rural Water System and the request for funds for 2002. She then questions from the floor.

There being no further business, Co-Chairman Gipp moved for adjournment at 11:20 a.m.

Senator John Jensen, Chairman
